Comes now, Plaintiffs in their own behalf and after having just learned on September 30th, while a stay in the hospital Floyd Beam has further complications of his cancer and it has been determined that seeking further remedies would be useless. Floyd Beam has taken hospice making attendance at any hearing in December an impossibility. Therefore, after careful consideration of the issues, Plaintiff's have decided that it would be prudent to withdraw their Complaint. Plaintiffs move to withdraw their Complaint in its entirety.

MOTION TO WITHDRAW AND MOTION TO DISMISS

Further, after careful study of the issues and consideration of the situation, Plaintiffs have decided to meet the claims of the Internal Revenue Service and the Oregon Department of Revenue and have settled both accounts with the United States Treasury.

Being there is no longer a controversy, this case, the Original Complaint of the Plaintiffs and the Counter Complaint of the Defendants, should be dismissed.

If the court needs further information, it may contact me at the location known as 340 Q Street, Springfield, Oregon 97477 and documentation will be supplied.

Respectfully Submitted on 11th of October, 2007.
